Per G.S. SINGHVI, CJ

In this petition, the petitioners have prayed for striking down the Recovery of Debts due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993.

Although no one has appeared for the petitioners, we do not consider it necessary to defer the adjudication of the writ petition because the constitutionality of the 1993 Act has been upheld by the Supreme Court in Union of India v. Delhi High Court Bar Association[1].

In view of the law declared by the Supreme Court, relief in terms of the prayer made by the petitioners cannot be granted.

With the above observation, the writ petition is dismissed.
